

Mellon Initiative in Racial Capitalism

Fall 2017 Events

introductory meeting

Wednesday, October 4th | 4 pm | 126 Voorhies Hall

What is Racial Capitalism?

Reflections on Cedric Robinson's Black Marxism: The Making of the Black Radical Tradition

wine and cheese reception to follow

works-in-progress series

Wednesday, October 18th | 4pm | 126 Voorhies Hall

“Data Farming: Seeding a ‘Data Revolution’ in African Agriculture”

Zenia Kish (Stanford University)

special event

Wednesday, October 25th | 4pm | Manetti Shrem Museum

Assembly and Riot:

Michael Hardt and Joshua Clover in conversation

disciplinary conversations

Wednesday, November 1st | 4pm | DHI Conference Room (228 Voorhies Hall)

Racial Capitalism and Literary Studies:

Adrienne Brown (University of Chicago)

Mark Jerng (English)

disciplinary conversations

Tuesday, November 14th | 4pm | 126 Voorhies Hall

Racial Capitalism and U.S. Empire:

Javier Arbona (American Studies)

Ofelia Cuevas (Chicano/a Studies)

Anjali Nath (American Studies)

works-in-progress series

Wednesday, November 29th | 4pm | 126 Voorhies Hall

“The Colonial and Racial Nature of Extractive Capitalism”

Alyosha Goldstein (University of New Mexico)

For more information and pre-circulated readings, email racialcapitalism@ucdavis.edu or visit our website at <http://racialcapitalism.ucdavis.edu>